

Federal Judicial Nominations Conference

Dear Applicants,

The Florida Federal Judicial Nominating Conferences (JNC) are a nonpartisan body of lawyers, legal scholars, former legal professionals, and non-lawyers who will evaluate applicants for the positions of U.S. District Court Judge, U.S. Attorney, and U.S. Marshal in the Northern, Middle and Southern Districts. Members of Florida's congressional delegation have established three Federal Judicial Nominating Conferences and tasked them with identifying highly qualified and diverse candidates for these positions.

The regional JNCs will recommend candidates for each vacancy and upon receiving those recommendations, the congressional delegation under the leadership of the Dean, or their designee, will provide President Biden and Florida's Senators the names of persons recommended for nomination.

The establishment of these regional JNCs is not intended to usurp the constitutional directive that the Senate provides "advice and consent" in the federal nominations process. These conferences are simply designed to assist with the selection of suitable candidates to be considered by Florida's Senators and the White House.

These three committees are accepting applications on an ongoing basis. Applicants are advised to apply now and not to wait for a vacancy to arise. If you're interested in being considered, please complete and send the relevant application form and supporting documents electronically to the appropriate regional email contact below. Applicants for all vacancies should fill out the "Confidential Application Form."

Applicants who are selected for personal interviews will be notified via email by the Chairperson of the JNC region for which they are applying.

Sincerely,

Debbie Wasserman Schultz
Member of Congress
